

The Daily Courant.

Tuesday, February 27. 1705.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated March 3.

Vienna, February 18.

THE 16th the Emperor made the Count of Herberstein Vice-President of the Council of War. Count Jorger died here yesterday, and is much lamented for his Merit and good Qualities. General Heister return'd out of the great Island of Schut to his Head Quarters at Bosing the 10th of this Month; and the next day march'd from thence again, with a great Body of Foot and Horse, in Quest of some Troops of the Malecontents that infest the Borders of Moravia; but we learn since that hearing of his Marching towards them they fled: So that at present all is quiet in that Province, as well as on the Frontier of the lower Austria on both sides the Danube. Mean time the Count of Porcia arriv'd here yesterday from Presbourg, with Advice that since General Heister left the great Island of Schut, the Malecontents are return'd into it; that the 13th Instant one of their Parties pass'd the Danube, and carried off the chief Magistrate of Rakendorp, with many of the Inhabitants and a good Number of Horses; and that Count Caroli threatens to advance with a strong Body of Horse and Foot to make a new Ravage on the Frontier of the Lower Austria, on this side the Leita, and quite up to this City. We learn from Buda, that Prince Ragotski has summon'd the Inhabitants of the open Country about that Place to Arm and joyn him forthwith on the Tibiscus. General Rabutin who commands in chief in Transilvania, has sent Word to his Imperial Majesty, that he has so well provided Hermanstad, Deva, and Fogaroth, with all things necessary for their Defence, that they are sufficiently secur'd for 1 Year against any Attempts the Malecontents of that Country commanded by Count Forgatz may make upon them. They write from Arath in the lower Hungary, that 1500 Hungarians or Ratsians of the Garrison in that Place, being out to get Intelligence what Troops of the Malecontents were in the Neighbourhood of Great Waradin, met 3 Troops of them in the Village of Koncadi 3 Leagues from Great Waradin; they attack'd them and inirely defeated them, killing most of them in the Action and Pursuit, and taking 52 Prisoners, among them a Collonel, and divers Subaltern Officers; together with one pair of Kettle-Drums, several Standards, and a Booty of 3000 Sheep, 2000 large Cattle, many Horses, and a great Number of Waggons loaded with Provisions. The Archbishop of Colocza having acquainted the Court, that he had learnt by several Letters, that the Malecontents of Hungary are desirous the Conferences about a Peace may be renew'd: Thereupon, as well as upon the repeated Instances of the Ministers of England and Holland on the same Subject, the Emperor has found himself oblig'd to send again into Hungary, the Baron Sirmay, and Occolizzani Vice-Provost of the Chapter of Colocza, with a Commission to treat with Deputies from the Malecontents of the Preliminaries to an Accommodation.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated March 3.

Frankfort, Feb. 25. The Baron d'Almelo is expected here daily from Cassel; he designs to return speedily to Holland, whence 'tis reported he will be sent by the States General to the Court of Vienna, with the Lord Pager the Queen of England's Envoy extraordinary, who it seems is expected at the Hague from England. They write from Ratisbon, that Cardinal Lamberg, who arriv'd there the 19th, has made Proposals in the Name of the Emperor to the States of Bavaria; Who make grievous Complaints of the heavy Contributions they are forc'd to pay to the Troops quarter'd in their Country; as also of the loose Discipline observ'd by those Troops. The Recruits for the Contingent furnish'd by this City towards the Army of the Empire, are sent to their Companies. Horses bought up for remounting the Cavalry on the Moselle, frequently pass this way thitherwards. Passengers from the Palatinate report, that the Fortifications of Landau are begun to be repair'd; and that the Bailiwicks about that Place are oblig'd to furnish a certain Number of Men to that Work daily.

From the Paris Letter, dated Feb. 27.

Paris, Feb. 27. 'Tis advis'd from Brescia, that the Count de Lautrec's Wound is not dangerous, and that the Surgeons do not doubt of curing him speedily. The Prince and Princess of Vaudemont, have sent to compliment him on his acquitting himself with the Bravery he did in the Action wherein he receiv'd this Wound. The Duke of Vendome offers to give in Exchange for him several Officers that are Prisoners in his Hands. The Princess of Ursini has receiv'd Letters from the King and Queen of Spain, in which they express great Impatience for her Return; and she is preparing to set out from hence for the Court of Madrid with all Expedition. When the Marshal de Villeroy arriv'd at Marly, the 20th Instant, the King was in his Closet with Madam de Maintenon; and being inform'd of the Marshal's attending without, he open'd the Door himself, and receiv'd him with this remarkable Expression, We are both overjoy'd to see you.

From the Paris Gazette, dated Feb. 28.

Brussels, Feb. 20. They write from Luxemburg, that the Marshal de Villars was arriv'd at Metz, to take a View of the Places on that Frontier and of the Troops quarter'd in them. The Enemy were getting together Stores of Provisions at Bonne and Coblentz, and sending the same up the Moselle to Triers. But 'tis said great part of these Provisions is consum'd as fast as it arrives, because of the great Number of Troops the Enemy have about Triers, and of the Sterility of the Country, where for some time there has been a great Scarcity of Provisions and Forrage. 'Tis advis'd from the Hague, that the States of Holland separated the 14th of this Month, and are not to meet again till the next. Before they separated, they consented to the Levying of the two hundredth Penny, payable four Times this Year: Which takes away half the Income of private Persons, not to mention the other excessive Imposts upon all that is consum'd in Holland. Notwithstanding which they are in so great want of Money for the publick Occasions, that the said States were inclin'd to augment this Tax of the two hundredth Penny; but thought best not to attempt it, because they were inform'd the People do already suffer, with great Concern and Impatience, the Taxes they are burthen'd with. The English have given them new cause of Complaint, by seizing as Prizes 8 or 10 Dutch Ships bound home from Bordeaux and other Ports of France, with Passports. The States General demanded Satisfaction for this in England:

England: But finding a delay made to do them Justice, they sent most exprefs Orders to their Envoy in England, to declare that they will use Reprisals, and proceed to the last Extremities, rather than suffer such Violences. We are assur'd these Threats have had Effect, and that the English have promis'd the States General to satisfy them.

A Certificate concerning Stoughton's Cordial Elixir.

This is to Certifie, That having used Mr. Stoughton's Cordial Elixir, found always great Benefit and Success from it, and do affirm, that when my Ship lay at Jamaica, a while ago, six or seven of my Men fell ill with a great Stoppage at the Stomach, high Fever, immediately Light Headed, together with a Vomiting and Looseness, and most died in 24 Hours, presently after six or seven more fell ill in the same manner, and then I plied them with the same Elixir, and with the Blessing of God every one were speedily cured, and all the Men acknowledge they owe their Lives to that Medicine, and I am of opinion it is of great use to be taken to Sea, it was in mighty Esteem at Jamaica when I came away, and was sold for 2 s. 6 d. a Bottle. This is Verbatim. Sign'd Matthew Beedly, Capt. of the Bonadventure, Aug. 17. 1703.

I have more Certificates by me to the same effect, too long to insert here, but any body may see them. The said Captain took a quantity with him, and some others lately, and I do believe it to be the best one Medicine in England to carry to Sea, for those Scorbutick Fevers, Fluxes, Gripes, &c. proceed from Infectious Air, Weakness of Stomach and Bowels, &c. against which this is a most noble Remedy, to be taken in a Dram of Brandy or Punch, as a Preservative or Curative. It will keep good many Years, and alters not in any Climate; when once tryed, few would venture to Sea without it.
